

Case to Counter CA905

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The CA905 case provides convenience and dependability with its sturdy construction. Built from durable heavy-duty plastic, it guarantees longevity while facilitating easy transportation with built-in wheels. The cover is lined with protective foam and closes with a lockable latch, so you can be assured your property will be safe during transit. With ample internal storage, this case fits OneFabric, WaveLine, Energy and many other display options.

The case quickly converts into a functional podium, with included black fabric wrap and elegant black topper. For a branded look, you have the option to upgrade to a full color cover, printed on One Planet 100% recycled textile.

The CA905 shines bright with its functionality, resilience, and eco-friendly innovations, making it the perfect pick for those in need of a reliable and versatile solution.
